

MUTUAL HOUSING
ASSOCIATION OF HAWAI'I

"Building our communities with respect, integrity, and aloha"

The Mutual Housing Association of Hawai'i, Inc. is a local non-profit that develops, owns and self-manages affordable rental properties for Hawai'i's low-income families. In addition to providing affordable shelter, Mutual Housing offers supportive social services and programs to help strengthen its residents and enrich its communities.

ADA accessible apartments available.
Assistance in completing rental applications provided upon request.

Abutilon Menziesii

Known as Ko'oloa'ula in Hawaiian, is an endangered species endemic to Hawai'i.

Only about 500 plants remain in fewer than ten naturally occurring populations throughout the islands. A natural preserve has been established next door to the project site to protect this rare plant. You will also find them planted near our project entrance sign.
